Day 3: Belgrade, Sarajevo

After a substantial breakfast, we hop on the bus for Sarajevo; Bosnia and Herzegovina's capital. As one of the most historically interesting and diverse cities in Europe, Sarajevo has been through it all. It is where the Western and Eastern Roman Empire split and where the people of the Roman Catholic's, Eastern Orthodoxy's and the Ottoman's met, lived and warred. Today, Sarajevo has physically recovered from most of the damage caused by the Yugoslav War; but there are still many reminders with bullet holes on the buildings. Sarajevo is a cosmopolitan European capital with a unique Eastern twist, making it a delight to visit. The walking tour will cover the fascinating history and background of Bosnia, as well as the old town - Bash Town, the Latin Quarter, Gazi Husrev Bey Mosque – one of the world's finest examples of Balkan architecture with Islamic influences, and all the hidden corners, small shops and stalls. Included Activities; Sarajevo City Tour Meals; Breakfast

Day 4: Sarajevo, Mostar, Trebinje

Today, we drive for amazing Adriatic shore, Mostar! As we arrive in this dreamland, we pay a visit to the Old Town of this Herzegovina pearl, see the iconic Old Bridge – Stari Most, and the old čaršija (market). Learn all about how the UNESCO World Heritage Site; the Old Bridge, which is now called the "New Old Bridge" although it dates to the 16th century. While the beautiful old town has been restored to its former beauty, if you stroll outwards, you can still see the marks left by war. In the afternoon, we continue along the coast until we reach Trebinje, an 18th century town located 28km from Dubrovnik. Overnight in Trebinje. Included Activities; Mostar Walking Tour Meals; Breakfast

Day 5: Trebinje, Dubrovnik, Trebinje

Get ready for a full day Dubrovnik! After the breakfast we depart for Croatia. It's time to discover the "Pearl of the Adriatic", Dubrovnik. With its well-preserved majestic walls encircling the whole town and its sea of terra-cotta roof tiles, giving life to the King's Landing, the whole town is an amazing UNESCO World Heritage Site. We start our guided walking tour of impressive Old Town and learn all about the millennial history of this incredible town with influences of the Romans, Byzantine, Ottomans and Venetians. We walk inside the mighty walls, visit the castle overlooking the port, and all the beautiful attractions and swim or drink around Dubrovnik, shore of Adriatic Sea to cool off. In the evening, we return to Trebinje for overnight. Included Activities; Guided Dubrovnik City Tour Meals; Breakfast

Day 6: Trebinje, Kotor, Budva

After the breakfast, we leave Bosnia and Herzegovina and our first stop is Kotor, Montenegro with its calming natural beauty and characteristic architecture. Following a walking tour of the old town with our expert local guide, we make our way to the popular touristic hub of the region, Budva. Included Activities; Guided Kotor City Tour, Budva Walking Tour Meals; Breakfast

Day 7: Budva, Tirana, Ohrid

We hit the roads following breakfast, next stop is Albania! . A panoramic city tour of Tirana will embrace Ethem Bey Mosque, one of the best preserved and most beautiful samples of Albanian architecture; as well as the Clock
